

Washington FarmLink Landowner Workshop

September 22; 4:00 - 8:30 pm

WSU Snohomish County Extension Cougar Auditorium & Webcast
600 128th St SE, Everett, WA 98208-6353

Workshop Agenda

Webcast address: <http://breeze.wsu.edu/farmlink>

3:30 – 4:00 Registration

4:00 Workshop/webcast begins, welcome and introductions

4:20 Presentation: Reducing the costs of holding land - local, state, and federal programs

- Melissa Michael - North Puget Sound Area FSA County Executive Director, Farm Service Agency
- Jared Hamman- Natural Resources Conservation Service
- Bobbi Lindemulder – Lead Farm Planner, Snohomish Conservation District

5:10 Mini break

5:15 Presentation: Working with land trusts, conservation easements, and land transfer options

- Melissa Campbell – Conservation Director, PCC FarmLand Trust

6:05 Dinner/networking

6:40 Presentation: Land transfer strategies and models

- Kate Dean – Land Transfer Consultant, Cascade Harvest Coalition Land Transfer Study

7:30 Presentation: Legal issues of farmland transfer and succession

- Amy Allison – Attorney, Anderson Hunter Law

8:20 Evaluation and thank you for coming!

8:30 Adjourned/clean up

FarmLink is a program of Cascade Harvest Coalition. Webcast capabilities and use of the workshop space are made possible by WSU Extension. Funding for this workshop is made possible by the WSDA/USDA Specialty Crop Block Grant Program. FarmLink committee members and partners include: USDA Specialty Block Crop Grant Program, WSDA, Cascade Harvest Coalition, WSU Extension, WA Young Farmers Coalition, Snohomish Conservation District, Pierce Conservation District, Coldwell Banker Bain, NW Farm Credit Services, Grow Food, Viva Farms, Kulshan Community Land Trust, PCC Farmland Trust, King Co Agriculture Programs, Office of Farmland Preservation, Full Circle Farm, Tahoma Farms/Terra Organics, Sno-Valley Tilth, Evergreen State College, Willie Green's Organic Farm, Cha's Farm, Island Meadow Farm, Re-Leaf Landscape Design, and more!