4-H PROJECT LEADER VOLUNTEER POSITION DESCRIPTION

Focus: assume specific project responsibility for a 4-H club or group, which may include the coordination of project activities, resource development and risk management.

Expectations:
- Prioritize the safety and well being of all youth members, serve as a mandated reporter
- Create / provide experiential activities for participating members
- Create a supportive and structured project learning environment
- Utilize the resources and current information related to projects provided by WSU Extension
- Assist the General/Organizational leader with recognizing successes and challenges of individual members
- Assist the General/Organizational leader with general club management as requested
- Have input in County 4-H Council meetings and engage with club in countywide 4-H events
- Cooperate with a General/Organizational club leader in maintaining club expectations
- Model behavior expectations for leaders as defined in C1000 “A Valuable Partnership.”

Time Required: Provide at least 24 hours of direct participation with youth and leaders / year. (On average, a project leader offers two one hour project meetings per month). Leaders preparing for and attending fair provide more hours during summer.

Responsible to: General Club Leader, WSU Extension 4-H Educator

Skills Required:
- Planning, organization skills
- Ability to communicate effectively
- Enjoy working in public settings with youth and adults
- Some problem solving and conflict resolution skills
- Ability and willingness learn new things

Resources:
- State and National 4-H Materials
- County and State Training Opportunities
- Extension Network

Benefits:
- An opportunity to work as a productive mentor with youth
- An opportunity to develop greater skills through experience and training
- A chance to contribute and be recognized within a local, state and national volunteer program.

Requires Successful Completion of:
- Application, WA State Patrol Background clearance, Project Leader Orientation

Washington State University does not discriminate on the basis of race, ethnicity, color, creed, religion, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, marital status, the presence of any sensory, mental or physical disability, use of a trained guide dog or service animal by a disabled person, specially disabled veteran, veteran of the Vietnam era, recently separated veteran, and other protected veteran status in its administration of educational policies, programs or activities, or other University administered programs or employment.